There are currently at least five vaccine-exemption cases filed against the City currently pending in San Francisco Superior Court: (1) United SF Freedom Alliance, et al. v. City and County of San Francisco, San Francisco Superior Court Case No. CGC-21-595642, (2) Kricken, et al. v. City and County of San Francisco, et al., San Francisco Superior, Court Case No. CGC-22-600135; (3) Sanchez v. City and County of San Francisco, et al., San Francisco Superior Court Case No. CGC-22-601361 (the "Related State Court Actions").¹ All five cases have been related, designated as complex, and have been assigned to Judge Ethan P. Schulman.

On July 20, 2023, Judge Schulman held a case management conference ("CMC") for the Related State Court Actions. In advance of the CMC, the City indicated that it intended to move to stay the Related State Court Actions pending resolution of the consolidated vaccine litigation currently pending before this Court. Judge Schulman ordered the City to file its motion to stay on or before August 10, 2023, and set a September 25, 2023 hearing date for the motion. Judge Schulman also stayed all discovery in the Related State Court Actions pending resolution of the City's motion to stay.
